

N National Centre
for Writing

International Literary Translation and Creative Writing
Summer School – 20 to 24 July 2020
University of East Anglia, Norwich, UK

APPLICATION FORM

Please complete all of the sections below. This form will be shared with the workshop selection panel, however your personal details form will remain with the British Centre for Literary Translation only.

Full name
------------------	--

Workshop Choice

Which workshop strand are you applying for? Please tick your first preference and second preference. If you are applying for either Multilingual Prose, Multilingual Theatre or Training the Trainer please also state which language you will be translating from. You do not need to state two preferences if you are only interested in one of the workshop strands:

Workshop	1st Preference	2nd Preference	Language translating from Danish – English
Dutch - English
French - English
Multilingual Prose
Multilingual Theatre
Norwegian - English
Training the Trainer

Education and Training Please give us some information about any formal education or training that you believe is relevant to your application.
--	--

Work Experience

Please give us some information about any work experience that you believe is relevant to your application. This can be paid or unpaid work.

Translation Experience

Please give us some information about your translation experience that you believe is relevant to your application. Please note that this can be very informal and may vary from highlighting your love of translation to listing any projects or publications.

Personal Statement

Please tell us why you feel you would benefit from participating in the Summer School at this particular moment in time. Give details of why now, whether you feel the training will have an impact on your career as a literary translator, plus tell us more about your enthusiasm and commitment to literary translation and creative writing.

Bursaries:

Dutch-English

6 x £250 bursaries are available for this workshop. Therefore participants that receive a bursary can take part free of charge. These bursaries are kindly supported by the Dutch Foundation for Literature. These bursaries are only available to those applying for the Dutch-English workshop. All Dutch-English applicants will be automatically considered for these bursaries.

French-English

10 x £250 bursaries are available for this workshop. Therefore participants that receive a bursary can take part free of charge. These bursaries are kindly supported by Pro Helvetia. These bursaries are only available to those applying for the French-English workshop. All French-English applicants will be automatically considered for these bursaries.

Norwegian-English

5 x £250 bursaries are available for this workshop. Therefore participants that receive a bursary can take part free of charge. These bursaries are kindly supported by NORLA. These bursaries are only available to those applying for the Norwegian-English workshop. Please tick if you would like to apply for the Norwegian bursary ()

NCW Bursary for a UK-based BAME (Black, Asian or Minority Ethnic) literary translator

National Centre for Writing (NCW) is offering four bursaries to UK-based BAME literary translators who would like to take part in any of the workshops (including Training the Trainer) at the 2020 International Literary Translation and Creative Writing Summer School. The £250 bursaries will cover the cost of online participation. Please tick if you would like to apply for the NCW bursary ()

BCLT 30th Anniversary Bursaries

BCLT is offering two bursaries to celebrate the Centre’s 30th Anniversary. These £250 bursaries are open to translators that are on a low income or that specifically require some extra financial support. We would like these bursaries to make it possible for two translators to attend that may not have had the opportunity otherwise. Participants that receive one of the BCLT bursaries can take part free of charge:

BCLT Bursary: If you would like to apply for the BCLT bursaries please state why you should be considered for a bursary (no more than 300 words)
---	--

Sample Translation:

- If you are applying for the French to English, Norwegian to English or the NCW bursaries, please also include an example of something that you have translated recently. This can be a short extract of your choice that is no longer than 400 words. Please include the original extract and the translation.

Signed..... Date.....

Please complete this form and return it as a PDF document along with your separate Personal Details form and your sample translation (of required) to bclt@uea.ac.uk

Your application will be reviewed by the delivering partners and the workshop leader of the workshop for which you have applied.

Further Application Information for Applicants

If your application is successful you will be invited to enrol onto the Summer School programme via a website link. There will be a time-limit in which to enrol in order to ensure that there are sufficient participants for each workshop to run. Workshops will be subject to a minimum number of participants and the programme is subject to change. Applications may be accepted after the advertised deadline at the discretion of the delivering partner institutions.

All applicants who apply before the deadline will be notified of the success of their application within four weeks of the deadline date.

If you have any questions about the Summer School please visit our Frequently Asked Questions page on the Summer School website www.bclt.org.uk/Summer-School or email bclt@uea.ac.uk

Closing date for applications: Monday 18 May 2020. Please note the application deadline for Dutch applicants is now Friday 22nd May 2020.

By submitting this application form you will be sharing some of your personal data with the University of East Anglia, and we are required by law to look after your information, and help you understand how it will be used.

Firstly, any personal data collected in this form will only be used by the University for the purpose described in the form itself. We will use the information you have provided for as long as required for the purpose, and always in accordance with the University's records retention policies. We will securely destroy or fully anonymise your information when it is no longer needed.

We will not share your information with any third parties unless this is required for the purpose explained in the form, or unless required by law.

Depending on the purpose, you are likely to have choice and control over how we use the personal data you have submitted in this form. UK data protection law gives you rights, which are explained here. We have also published further general information on how your personal data will be used.

If you have any comments or concerns about the way your personal data is collected or used in this instance, please contact bclt@uea.ac.uk or call +44 1603 592785.